If you do not enroll, your academic credentials will be retained in Graduate Admissions for two years, after which time they will be destroyed.

The University of Louisville reserves the right to change programs of study, academic requirements, tuition and fees, schedule of courses, the announced academic calendar and deadlines without prior notice.

Application Fee

Applicants must include a $50 (U.S. currency) nonrefundable application processing fee. Checks or money orders should be made payable to the University of Louisville. Please include the applicant's full name, social security number and birth date on the check. Your application will not be processed without this fee.

Previous graduate students who have not attended another college or university since enrollment at UofL are exempt from the fee.

Transcripts

Official transcripts from each college attended are required of all degree-seeking students, even if no credit was earned. Final transcripts with degrees posted will be required to finalize admissions in degree status.

Unofficial or faxed copies will not be accepted.

Applicants to nondegree or certificate programs are only required to submit official transcripts certifying at least a bachelor's degree.

Test Scores

Applicants to most graduate programs must take the general section of the Graduate Record Exam.

www.gre.org

Kent School of Social Work MSSW applicants are not required to take the GRE. If undergraduate course work is below a cumulative 2.75 grade point average, they must submit a Miller Analogies Test score or a GRE score.

Applicants who have completed terminal degrees (i.e., M.D., DMD, DDS, and Ph.D.) may be exempt. Please consult the graduate program director.

Except as provided in the guidelines, it is presumed that a resident has remained in this state in a non-student status for the 12 months immediately preceding enrollment in the institution.

The domicile of an unemancipated person, as defined in the guidelines, is that of his/her parent. The domicile of a married person is determined by the provisions of the guidelines independent of the residence of the spouse.
