

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job. Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

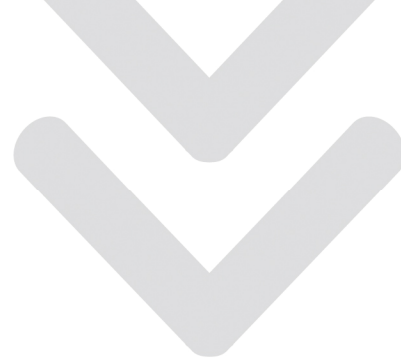

Job title: LSE Fellow in European Political Economy

Ref no: 1416556

Department/Division: European Institute

Accountable to: Head of the European Institute

Criteria	E/D
A PhD in economics or political economy, preferably with a specialisation in the fields of macroeconomics, international money and finance	E
A research interest in optimal currency areas, the optimal design of monetary and fiscal policies in a monetary union and the governance of the Eurozone	E
Ability to work independently	E
Evidence of excellent communication and written skills in English	E
Evidence of the ability and willingness to work as part of a team in assisting the research activities of the John Paulson Chair, and in the smooth running of the Institute	E
Proven ability to manage time effectively to meet short, medium and long-term project Deadlines	E
A developing record of strong research published in peer-reviewed journals	D
Proven ability to manage small/medium research projects	E
Experience of teaching. The successful candidate, depending on their previous teaching experience, may be required to undertake the LSE's PGCert in Higher Education	E
The skills and willingness to teach the core courses on the MSc Political Economy of Europe	E
Capacity to supervise masters students and to mark formative essays, examinations and dissertations	E
Experience of providing pastoral support to student advisees	D
Excellent administrative skills	D

The ability and willingness to work as part of a team in assisting the smooth running of the Institute	E
--	---

E – Essential: Requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: Requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.