Dignity, Diversity and Equality Policy (Employment) Statement

Bournemouth University is committed to both the avoidance of unlawful discrimination and the positive promotion of diversity and equality. In pursuit of this it is essential that no person shall experience more or less favourable treatment on the grounds of disability, gender, gender expression and identity, sexual orientation, marital or parental status, age, race, colour, ethnic origin, nationality (subject to UKBA permission), trade union membership and activity, political or religious beliefs, socio-economic background and any other distinction.

In order to ensure the effective implementation of this policy, the University will monitor its employment related policies, practices and procedures on a continuing basis. Where appropriate, action will be taken to address any matters arising from monitoring.

As an approved user of the disability symbol we are committed to employing disabled people and will interview all applicants with a disability recognised within the definition of the Equality Act 2010, who meet the minimum criteria for a job vacancy and consider them on their abilities. The Act defines disability as a physical or mental impairment, which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on a person's ability to carry out normal day to day activities. Long term is taken to mean lasting for a period greater than twelve months or where the total period is likely to last at least twelve months. If you are in any doubt about whether you meet this definition please contact Human Resources.

Please complete all relevant questions on the form below. This information is confidential and will be stored electronically and manually in Human Resources for monitoring purposes only. This form will not be passed on to those making a selection decision.

10 Disability
The Equality Act 2010 protects employees, job applicants, contract workers and students who fall within the new definition of disability. The Act defines disability as a physical or mental impairment, which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on a person's ability to carry out normal day to day activities. Long term is taken to mean lasting for a period greater than twelve months or where the total period is likely to last at least twelve months. This definition includes people with heart disease, diabetes, epilepsy, severe disfigurement, depression, schizophrenia, Down's syndrome, dyslexia, for example.
Do you consider yourself to be disabled within the definition of the Equality Act 2010?
YES / NO
If you wish please give further details here
You are not obliged to declare a disability and the University recognises that many people who may be considered disabled under the terms of the DDA do not require any assistance or support. However for those who may, equipment, computer software, flexible working, other support or reasonable adjustment may be available, so an individual's impairment would have little or no bearing on their capability to realise their employment potential. If you wish please give further details here of any equipment or support you may need because of your disability to carry out the duties described in job description or during the interview selection process. This may include any special consideration for access.
